

A Career in Flying: Simon Wood

Embark on an exhilarating journey through the skies with Simon Wood! This presentation takes you from the early ambitions of a young dreamer to the prestigious halls of RAF College Cranwell, where the foundation of flight training is laid. Experience the thrill of serving as a frontline pilot in the Royal Air Force Germany, and dive into the advanced training at the Empire Test Pilots' School. Explore cutting-edge test flying research, where innovations in flight management and control systems are developed. Witness the precision and expertise in weapons certification, and discover the importance of flight simulation in enhancing pilot training. Get ready to be inspired by a career that not only soars above the clouds but also pushes the boundaries of aviation technology and expertise. This presentation is a testament to the dedication, skill, and passion required to achieve a successful and fulfilling career in flying.

